Dear friends in Christ,

I want first to thank all of you for being so supportive when I shared with you the news of my being assigned to a new parish. I too am saddened to leave you all but I am also hopeful for both myself and for the future of this community. I often forget, but find strength when I remember, that God is all powerful and all loving. Even more than sorrow for our sins, the Lord desires our trust. St. Faustina writes in Her Diary of Divine Mercy the following:

“Jesus [said]: ‘My child, life on earth is a struggle indeed; a great struggle for my kingdom. But fear not, because you are not alone. I am always supporting you, so lean on Me as you struggle, fearing nothing. Take the vessel of trust and draw from the fountain of life – for yourself, but also for other souls, especially such as are distrustful of My goodness.’” (#1488)

St. Faustina also wrote the following:

“When I see that the burden is beyond my strength, I do not consider or analyze it or probe into it, but I run like a child to the Heart of Jesus and say only one word to Him: “You can do all things.” And then I keep silent, because I know that Jesus Himself will intervene in the matter, and as for me, instead of tormenting myself, I use that time to love Him.” (#1033)

In the midst of all the struggles and uncertainties of these times, it is my prayer that we all renew our trust in the goodness and mercy of God that has been revealed to us in Christ. I invite us all to pray the following novena prayer that calls on the intercession of the saintly parish priest, St. Jean Vianney:

O holy Curé of Ars, St. John Vianney, you loved God and faithfully served Him by serving His people as their priest. Now, as you are with our Father, you can continue to serve Him by presenting our petitions to Him directly. Remember the vulnerabilities, fears, and anxieties that surround us and intercede for us in all our needs, especially as we pray for the assignment of a new pastor for our community here at Christ Our Hope. O Priest of Ars, pray for us in a special way during this novena, we ask in the name of Jesus our Lord. Amen

Daily prayers that can also be said as a part of this novena can be found here:
<https://cureofars.com/coanovena>

In the Gospel, Our Lord exhorts His disciples who were overcome by fear in the midst of a storm while making their way across the sea:

“O you of little faith, why did you doubt?” After they got into the boat, the wind died down. Those who were in the boat did him homage, saying, “Truly, you are the Son of God.”

Grace be with you all,

Rev. Thomas J. Ward
