Peace of Christ,

Today we celebrate the second Sunday of lent. By now we are deep into our Lenten sacrifices and are on track with what we want to do for lent. At the heart of our readings today we see sacrifice. In the first reading from the book of genesis, Abraham is ready to sacrifice his son, but God sees his devotion to Him and stops Abraham. Even in St Paul's letter to the Romans He reminds us that God did not spare His own Son but handed Him over to death on a cross for our sake to share in eternal life. In our gospel, Jesus is transfigured. This serves as a reminder to the disciples of who Jesus was and His identity as the Messiah, the Son of God. When the voice of God comes through the clouds and says this is my beloved Son, listen to Him, we should be reaffirmed in our faith as well.

Are there times in your lives where you doubt or question your faith? This is okay and healthy to be able to question and be willing to explore our faith so we can reaffirm it as the disciples did in this Gospel. As their faith was renewed, they would soon learn what sacrifice was when Christ tells them of His crucifixion.
As we focus on sacrifice in this week's readings, we can use the sacrifices we have made throughout our lives as a foundation to reaffirm our faith. Whether you are struggling in your relationship with God, or you simply are journeying through lent, use this time to go deeper in your relationship with Him.

Are there things you need to talk with the Lord about in prayer, or things that have come up that you should seek out the sacrament of reconciliation? These things should draw us closer to Christ and allow us to reaffirm our faith. The sacrament of Reconciliation is available on Tuesdays at Holy Hour between 5-6PM as well as Saturdays before the 4PM Mass. I encourage you to take some time and make and examination of conscience, even if you are not in need of Confession, it is a good practice to see how God is present in your life each day.
Take some time today and reflect on your own sacrifices you have made, either during lent or throughout your lives. Use those to see how God was or is present in them and reaffirm your faith in Christ by receiving Him in the Eucharist this week.
In Christ, Fr. Matt Rawson
