Happy Easter!

Gospel John 20:1-9

Alleluia He is Risen! Today we as a Church celebrate the Resurrection of Jesus Christ who has defeated sin and death and won the true victory for all of His people. In the Gospel scene today, we would imagine there to be a calm and reflective encounter, but instead we see panic and grief. Mary has come to the tomb with Simon Peter and with John to find the tomb empty. Realizing that the tomb is empty they become frightened and concerned. As the Gospel recounts, "they did not yet understand the scripture that He had to rise from the dead." We recognize that Jesus rose from the dead and appears to his disciples and to many others through the duration of the New Testament. Over the next few days we will listen to the encounters of Jesus and his followers. This is a great time to reflect on our own encounters with Jesus especially over the last few weeks of lent, but more importantly, in the days to come. How has Christ made Himself present in your life? Take some time to reflect on that today.

God Bless!
