This past Thursday we celebrated the ascension of Jesus. Many ask the question why we celebrate the ascension and why we focus so much so that it is a Holy Day of obligation. When we look at our faith we normally focus on the crucifixion and the resurrection as salvific events. When we look at the feast, we celebrated this past Thursday it gives an end to the appearances of Jesus to His followers during the forty days following his resurrection. This pivotal feast day foreshadowed the final salvific event in salvation history namely the glorious return to heaven and the continuing work of the Holy Spirit (the third person of the Trinity).

As we focus on the ascension, we are also nearing the end of the Easter season. Next weekend we will celebrate the descent of the Holy Spirit at Pentecost which marks 50 days after the Resurrection of Jesus. Both feast days show the love of Jesus that He would give us the Holy Spirit to continue His work in the world. The Holy Spirit is often misunderstood as this separate God which as I mentioned earlier is the third person of the Trinity (Father, Son, Holy Spirit). Many times, the Holy Spirit is left out because we are unsure how to pray to the Spirit or unsure how to listen to the Spirit. The simple solution to this problem is that we pray to the Spirit as we would pray to the Father or the Son. One of the most beautiful prayers to the Holy Spirit is simply, "Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, enkindle in them the fire of your love, send forth your spirit and we shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth. Take some time this week and next and incorporate this into your own prayer life.

God Bless,

Fr Matt Rawson
