You can imagine the confusion on the disciple's face when Jesus said that he would no longer be with them, and now the Holy Spirit descends upon them and they all can understand languages and speak like they have never spoke before. When they gathered in the upper room and this "driving wind" comes forth, the Holy Spirit descends on them like tongues of fire. We focus in the second reading from the first letter of St Paul to the Corinthians about various spiritual gifts. St Paul reminds us that all of us here have many gifts and we are to use them for the good of others. When we think of spiritual gifts we often think about the Sacrament of Confirmation when we receive the fullness of grace of the Holy Spirit. When we think of the gifts we receive at Confirmation, we are reminded of the gifts of wisdom, understanding, counsel, fortitude knowledge, piety, and fear of the Lord. These gifts were given to the disciples to be able to go out and convert nations. You and I are called to do the same by the way that we live out our faith the way we live our lives. When Jesus gives the Holy Spirit, the disciples are empowered with this new knowledge, we were empowered with the same knowledge at the time of our Confirmation. Let us take some time to renew those gifts and pray to the Holy Spirit for an increase of faith and in the willingness to be like the disciples and go bring all others to Christ. Come Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, enkindle in the m the fire of your love. Send forth your spirit and they shall be created, and you shall renew the face of the earth.

God Bless,

Fr Matt Rawson
