As we begin our journey into ordinary time, we come to a series of three feasts namely Pentecost, Trinity Sunday, and Corpus Christi. Last weekend we celebrated the solemnity of Pentecost marking 50 days following the resurrection of Christ. This weekend we celebrate what is known as Trinity Sunday or the feast of the Holy Trinity. When we look at the feast of the Holy Trinity we are often faced with confusion as to how we explain it. So often we can get caught up in trying to understand or comprehend what three persons in one God means. As we focus on the Trinity, there are many images that we can utilize to draw us closer to God as father Son and Holy Spirit. Many of these images allow us to comprehend an understanding but not fully grasp the idea.

The Holy Trinity consists of God the father God the Son and God the Holy Spirit, making three persons in one God. We reiterate this every time we make the sign of the cross. Think about it, when we make the sign of the Cross: we say in the name of the father and of the son and of the Holy Spirit. Each time we start our prayer whether it be Mass or our own personal prayer, we begin with making the sign of the Cross reminding us of those three persons in one God. If we break it down, we would understand it to be as followed. In the name of the father, the Father who loves us and created us, the Son, the one who redeemed us and made the ultimate sacrifice on the Cross, and of the Holy Spirit, the one who gives us life and dwells within us.

As we hear the Trinitarian formula in the gospel today let us remember each time, we make the sign of the cross that is a powerful sign and should remind us of our own baptismal call when we were baptized into a trinity of love of God the father, God the son, and God the Holy Spirit.

Peace
