Dear Parishioners,

During the month of November, we commemorate the souls of those who have died during the last year. During this time many questions come up regarding the topics of Heaven, Hell, and Purgatory. Often, I am asked what the Church's definition of these are and what the Church teaches on these. It is fitting that we focus on these topics during our family faith formation this month and dive deeper into what our version of all of these are. It is important to understand that the Church does not elaborate at length on the topics of Hell or Purgatory and speaks very little on what Heaven is like.
Focusing on the image of Heaven, we can understand it to be a time of seeing God face to face and being always with Him. One often likens the image of Heaven to the happiest moment of their life, or one of the most peaceful moments. Many say its easy to see God in the beauty of nature or in times when you are doing what makes you happy.

Another topic that is focused on this month in our family faith formation is the topic of Hell. This should not be harped on at length, but it is important to acknowledge that it exists.
There are many depictions of Hell. Whether we see it as fire as referenced in the bible, or as a frozen encasement of ice that one is stuck in and can't move, as Dante would explain it. Either way we can surmise that Hell is the complete absence of God, and the only way to get to Hell is to completely reject God even after knowing Him. The final topic that we focus on this month is Purgatory. This is often seen as a time of purification or a place that we go to purify our souls and ready them to see God. I always like to look at Purgatory as a type of waiting room in which we can spend as much time as we need to be able to prepare ourselves for Heaven.

All three of these topics are great to meditate on considering our readings this weekend. We read in the Book of Deuteronomy that you shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength. We know what it means to love God, as well as what it means to reject Him. How will you love God this week?

God Bless,
Fr Matt Rawson
