Dear Parishioners,

On December 20th & 21st we will offer confessions at Christ our Hope Parish from 4PM-7PM at St. Josephs Church. During this time of Advent, we use it to prepare our hearts and our homes. Whether it has been a week or a number of years, it's a great time to come to confession to prepare your heart for the coming of the Messiah.

Today we celebrate the third Sunday of Advent. There is one word that adequately describes this Sunday in Advent and that is "Rejoice." We rejoice in many things but at the heart of that rejoicing is our faith. We also rejoice because our Advent journey is now halfway over. We are closer to Christmas and the birth of the Messiah. During this time of rejoicing, what do we have to rejoice over? At times we may think we have very little to rejoice over, but often, after meditating and praying, we can see there is much to rejoice in.

The Lord rejoices as well. We hear this in our first reading from Zephaniah. The Lord rejoices because the time of waiting is almost over, Just as God's people longed for the Messiah, we too long for Him and wait for that day when He comes again. We also should rejoice when we invite Him into our lives. Whether it's at a time of prayer, receiving the Eucharist, or sitting in the presence of the Blessed Sacrament, we should rejoice in those times.

Think for a moment this week, what do I have to rejoice in? How can I use this time of rejoicing to look and see all of the things God has given me to rejoice over?

God Bless,
Fr Matt Rawson
