Dear Parishioners,

Merry Christmas! We hear in our Responsorial Psalm “Today is born our Savior, Christ the Lord.” Indeed, He truly is born. As we celebrate this beautiful Feast of Christmas, we welcome the Son of Man born into this world as a child, meek and humble. Look at the Nativity set in the front of the Church or in your home, what comes to mind in that depiction? For many of us it is a beautiful rendition of the Holy Family surrounded by shepherds and animals. At first glance, the nativity looks almost serene. As we look deeper and remind ourselves that Jesus was born in a stable, we begin to understand that it was not all that beautiful. When we begin to remember that with this stable, came the smells, the sounds, and the cold as well. This shows the hardships that Jesus, Mary, and Joseph, endured. With this said, it reminds us that Jesus came to meet us in the world that we know best. A world filled with both beauty and chaos. We see the beauty of the birth of Christ, but we also see the reality that we are faced with on a daily basis.

As we celebrate this joy-filled day, let's focus on the beauty of Christ who came into this world to be the Light of the world and to shine in the midst of darkness. Even in the “messiness” of our lives, we have the light of Christ to brighten our way even when we are faced with the trials of our daily lives.

So, as we gather with friends and family, or even in our own way, we remember this day what Christmas is all about. It's not only about the presents or the time we spend with loved ones, but at the heart of this Day is Christ, the Light of the World, Emmanuel. God is among us and continues to be with us to this day. Let us resound the words of the Psalm, “Today is born our Savior, Christ the Lord.” May Christ dwell in your hearts this Christmas Season and may you and your loved ones have a Merry Christmas!

God Bless,
Fr Matt Rawson
