Dear Parishioners,

As the weather begins to warm up, we all know that as the blanket of snow melts, it brings upon a time of mud and mess. During this time, we make provisions to clean up and prepare for Spring. Spring cleaning is great as it allows us to see some of the things we missed or possibly pay closer attention to other things. The same goes for our spiritual lives. Each time during Lent and Advent we have the opportunity to clean our souls and go to confession.

During the Gospel today Jesus meets the woman caught in adultery. His words to her were much more than a warning, they were a direct call for her to get her act together and change her ways. His stern words allowed her to make the choice to walk away from her old way of life and focus on the way that she should be following. The same goes for each of us.
We can allow ourselves to see where we need to make changes in our lives this year so that we can remain in good graces with God. Let God help us with those muddy times in our lives and walk us through those times when we need His help the most.

Monday April 11th we will have "The Light is on for You" campaign throughout the Diocese. This means that from 4-7pm, Confessions will be available in many parishes throughout the diocese. Christ Our Hope at St Joseph's will have confessions on April 11th from 4-7PM. I would encourage you take the opportunity to come to confession whether it has been a few weeks or many years. God is waiting to give you His forgiveness and His mercy.

God Bless,
Fr. Matt Rawson
