Dear Parishioners,

This weekend, we celebrate Divine Mercy Sunday. This Sunday always falls the Sunday after Easter. It shows us how the Love of God and His Mercy is shown to us even if we have trouble believing. How often do we doubt? Doubting is a natural part of life until we are certain that we can see something or believe it.

As people of faith, we are reminded that our faith should be our eyes and that we should see things in such a way that God's Mercy is shown. Today, we hear the story of doubting Thomas in the Gospel. You might expect that Jesus would be disappointed or possibly annoyed with Thomas' attitude of wanting to see the nail marks and the wound in His side. But Jesus wasn't upset. Instead He shows mercy to Thomas. How similar is this to our own lives of faith? Are there times where you expected more from God or wanted things to turn out in a different way?

The mercy of God is beyond all understanding and concepts that we can comprehend, but yet Jesus still shows us that mercy in ways that we can understand.
Like with Thomas, Jesus was patient, and gentle with his misunderstanding. For all of us, Jesus is that same way. Jesus continues to wait for us to come to Him and to make our decisions, even if they are not the best decisions. Jesus walks with us and desires to help us in correcting those decisions. We hear in Luke's Gospel, the disciples saying "Lord increase our faith." Each of us should be able to make that prayer a part of our daily routine to help us know that the Lord in His divine mercy desires to show us His mercy and give us the patience we need to be able to grow closer to Him.

God Bless,
Fr. Matt Rawson
