Dear Parishioners,

This weekend, we read from John's Gospel in the section called the Last Supper Discourse. Jesus is talking to His disciples about how He will only be with them for a little while longer and that He will give them the Advocate, the Holy Spirit. We all know the value of preparing for things. Whether we are going on vacation, or preparing for something else.

As families we are called to walk with each other on the journey of life. Parents are called to help their children to prepare for many things throughout their life. Whether that consists of preparing for things in school, preparing for an exam, making preparations to go on vacation. In the Gospel today, Jesus is preparing His disciples for His Passion, Death, and Resurrection. He promises the Holy Spirit, gives them the gift of His peace, and tells them not to be troubled.

This week I encourage families to talk about the things that they have prepared for in their own lives. We all know the importance of preparing for things in our lives. We also know that there are things that we cannot fully prepare for in our lives. The things that we can prepare for, we should try our best to do so as a family or even as individuals. We will celebrate the Feast of Pentecost in two weeks, how will you prepare for the coming of the Holy Spirit?

God Bless,

Fr. Matt Rawson
