Dear Parishioners,

This weekend we celebrate a beautiful but also challenging Feast in the Church's liturgical calendar.
The Most Holy Trinity reminds us of the importance of the unity of the Father, Son, and the Spirit as three persons of one substance. When I was in seminary, we had an icon in one of the chapels that depicted the trinity in a beautiful way. An artist named Andrei Rublev depicts three Angels that visited Abraham by the oak of Mamre (Genesis 18:1-8).
The three angels are sitting around a table symbolizing harmony, peace, and spiritual unity. If you look closely, these Angels all point towards each other unifying themselves around what looks to be a chalice bowl with the Sacrificial Lamb. Taking what we understand as the Sacrificial Lamb of the Old Testament and Christ as the Sacrificial Lamb in the New Testament, we can understand the sacrifice on the altar made in the Old and New Testament.

When we think of the trinity, we often are confused by making the Father, Son, and the Spirit three distinct persons. This is contrary to our Trinitarian belief. Each time we make the sign of the cross at the start of Mass or a prayer, we recall our Trinitarian belief. We focus on the God who makes himself known through Jesus and the Holy Spirit who is given to us through Christ after His Ascension into Heaven. Our Gospel Reading focuses on God's love for each of us when John says in his Gospel "God so loved the world; He gave His Son so that all may have eternal life. With all the confusion around this feast, we must focus on the foundation of the Trinity, this is to say that God's love for us is stronger and is given freely to us through God the Father who created us, the Son who redeems us, and the Spirit who sanctifies us. Let us reflect on how God the Father, the Son, and the Spirit calls us and guides us in all that we do. May the Holy Trinity Bless us and sanctify us in all that we do. Amen!

God Bless,
Fr. Matt Rawson
