Dear Parishioners,

Happy Easter! Alleluia, He is Risen. For each of us, we have journeyed with Christ through His triumphant entry into Jerusalem, His betrayal by Judas Iscariot, celebration of the Last Supper with His disciples, Passion, Death, and Resurrection.
Each of these Days during this past week have been met with a different theme, and we recall them each year as we celebrate Holy Week.
Everyone of us celebrates Easter differently, whether it is with friends or family, whether we go somewhere or stay home. At the heart of this season, we recall Christ's Resurrection from the dead, and His triumph over Sin and death. St Paul, in his Letter to the Corinthians, mocks death, and says "O Death where is your sting, O Hell where is your Victory." When we recall Christ's victory over Sin and death, we remember that he has died for our sins so that we might be forgiven. Let us never forget that He paid the ultimate price by giving His life as a ransom for many, so that we could have eternal Life.

Our readings this weekend are filled with so much light, verses dark imagery, and remind us to continue to remain in the light. As I think back over the last few years, I am reminded that just about four years ago to this day there was a fire in the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris. This fire had destroyed the church's spire, roof and much of the interior walls. During this time, the one thing that emerged was the Cross behind the Main Altar which had been untouched by the fire and remained as a beacon of Hope to not only the fire fighters, but everyone who had watched this terrible scene unfold. Very similar to our own lives, there are various events that will happen that can easily take our focus off the light, or off the cross.

During this Easter season, let us take the opportunity to remember to remain in the light and close to the Cross of Christ. For each Christian faith denomination, we may celebrate Easter just a little differently, but the one fact is clear; "Jesus is Risen." As people of faith, let us continue to remind ourselves that He is alive and in our lives every day. Let us continue to make Him a part of our daily routine and focus on the Light.

God Bless,
Fr. Matt Rawson
