Dear Parishioners,

I want to take this opportunity to say how much fun last Sunday was at the Fall Festival. We had almost 200 people in attendance, and everyone had an amazing time! This event could not have taken place without the help of so many key people. I want to take an opportunity to thank our chairperson Sue Alger, and our coordinators, Teresa Lampman, Debbie Crofoot, Joann Satterly, Lori Carrier, Kelly Nagy, Dolores Risley, and Gerry Ritter. So many more people helped make this event a successful and exciting time. Please keep an ear out to when the next event will be. We are looking forward to hosting more events in the future so stay tuned!!! As always, if you are interested in helping in any capacity, please feel free to let us know. I would also like to thank Dan Stysh, for allowing us to have this event at the Campgrounds, it was a perfect venue. We look forward to having this event again next year at Stysh's Brown Barn.

I have not said much about the Hope Appeal yet this year except for our goal. As many of you know our goal is $18,175.00, and to date we have collected $7,479.00. We are over 1/3 of the way toward reaching our goal!!

This weekend, in our Gospel, Jesus shares a parable known as the Wedding Feast. This story holds profound lessons for us to reflect upon. The parable illustrates the kingdom of heaven as a wedding banquet, where God invites many to partake in the joyous celebration. However, we witness the indifference and rejection of the initial guests, who prioritize worldly matters over the invitation. I'm reminded of the importance of recognizing God's divine invitation in our lives. It prompts us to ask ourselves if we are truly accepting and embracing His call. Just like the guests who failed to honor the invitation, we may find ourselves preoccupied with the distractions and busyness of life, overlooking the incredible opportunity to experience the abundant blessings of God's kingdom.

This parable highlights God's inclusive nature. He invites both the good and the bad, representing His unconditional love and grace towards all people. It serves as a reminder that no one is beyond redemption or excluded from God's invitation to experience His love and forgiveness. In our own lives, we must actively respond to God's invitation with gratitude, humility, and a willingness to align our lives with His purposes. Let us not be complacent or distracted but embrace the joyous celebration that awaits us in the kingdom of heaven.

God Bless,
Fr. Matt
