† To request either the Anointing of the Sick or Communion to the Sick please call the Parish Office. †

Dear Parishioners,

The crowd in this section of chapter six of John's Gospel cannot get enough of Jesus. They are following him wherever he goes because they are entertained by the signs that he is performing. After all, feeding five thousand people with just a little bread and fish is impressive! However, Jesus redirects their energy so that they do not simply look to him for their next meal, but for the food that will forever satisfy the deepest longings and desires of their hearts. An important dialogue takes place in which the crowd listens to what Jesus is saying and calling them to do and then responds by seeking what he is offering them: himself, the "bread of life." In doing so, some of them "come" to him so that they will "never hunger" and "believe" in him so that they will "never thirst."

In the Liturgy of the Word of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass we Listen to God speaking to our hearts and inviting us to come to him. We then Respond in faith by taking part in the one offering of Christ and by coming to him to be fed in Holy Communion so that we will never hunger or thirst.

Maybe some questions we can ask ourselves this week are: Do I Listen when the Word of God is proclaimed? Or do I simply read along? Do I Respond with a bold "Thanks be to God" and "Praise to You, Lord, Jesus Christ" when the Word of God is proclaimed? Do I sing from the depths of my heart the words of the responsorial psalm, offering it as a prayer to God?

Do I enter into the action of the Liturgy of the Word – listening and responding – so that I am ready to come to the altar to join my offering to the one offering of Christ? And so that when I receive Jesus, the "Bread of Life," in Holy Communion, I truly believe that he is satisfying the deepest longings and desires of my heart for God and eternal life?

God Bless,
 Fr. Matt
