23RD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

And people brought to him a deaf man who had a speech impediment and begged him to lay his hand on him. He took him off by himself away from the crowd. He put his finger into the man's ears and, spitting, touched his tongue; then he looked up to heaven and groaned, and said to him, "Ephphatha!"—that is, "Be opened!" - Mk 7:32-34

Excerpt from the Lectionary for Mass ©2009, 1998, 1970 CCD ©LPI

Today's Readings Begin on pg. 995 Year B

Isaiah 35:4-7a
The ears of those who are deaf will be cleared; and the tongue of those who are mute will sing.

Psalm 146:6-7, 8-9, 9-10
Praise the Lord, my soul!

James 2:1-5
Did not God choose the poor to be heirs of the kingdom?

Mark 7:31-37
He makes the deaf hear and the mute speak.

Dear Parishioners,

Our Gospel this weekend, recounts the healing of a deaf and mute man, showcasing Jesus' compassion and authority. This passage is significant not only for its miraculous event but also for the theological themes it presents. The narrative begins with Jesus departing from the region of Tyre and Sidon, returning to the Sea of Galilee, and entering the region of the Decapolis. This geographical move is noteworthy, as it highlights Jesus' ministry beyond Jewish boundaries, engaging with Gentile communities. The Decapolis, a group of ten cities primarily inhabited by Gentiles, underscores the inclusivity of Jesus' mission.

Upon arrival, people bring a deaf man who has a speech impediment to Jesus, imploring Him to heal him. This act of bringing the man to Jesus reflects a communal faith and desire for healing. The physical description of the man emphasizes his suffering and isolation, as being deaf and mute would have severely limited his social interactions and communication. Jesus responds with a series of intimate and personal actions, taking the man aside from the crowd, putting His fingers in the man's ears, and touching his tongue. These actions signify a deep connection between Jesus and the individual, emphasizing His desire to engage personally with those He heals. The use of physical gestures also illustrates the tangible nature of Jesus' ministry, breaking down barriers of communication and demonstrating His authority over physical ailments.

The Aramaic word "Ephphatha," meaning "Be opened," signifies the moment of healing. This command not only restores the man's physical abilities but also symbolizes a broader spiritual awakening. The immediate response of the man—his ears being opened and his tongue being released—highlights the transformative power of Jesus' words and actions. The passage concludes with Jesus instructing the crowd to tell no one about the miracle. However, the more He commands silence, the more they proclaim His deeds. This paradox emphasizes the irresistible nature of Jesus' healing and the growing recognition of His identity as the Messiah, affirming His role in God's redemptive plan for all people, transcending ethnic and social boundaries.

Have a Blessed Week
Fr. Matt

Food Pantry Corner

The St. Patrick's food pantry has distributed 1470 meals for the month of August. A reminder to our seasonal neighbors and vacationers, when the time comes to close down your camps, please consider donating your unopened, not-expired shelf items to our local food pantry. You can contact us at (315) 507-0547 to make arrangements with a volunteer.

The St. Patrick's St. Mary's food pantry is participating in Mohawk Valley Gives. On September 20th there is a 24-hour day of giving where members of our community and folks country-wide can make donations to organizations that support families in their communities. On September 20th go to givemv.org, search St. Patrick's St. Mary's food Pantry in Forestport and make a donation. Spread the word to your family and friends, this is a great opportunity to support our mission. Your donations help us improve the health and well-being of our neighbors.
