Dear Parishioners,

Mark 13:24-32 presents a powerful reflection on the themes of hope, vigilance, and divine authority amid the uncertainties of life. This passage is part of Jesus' Olivet Discourse, where he speaks about the end times and the signs that will accompany his return. The vivid imagery of cosmic disturbances in verses 24-25—where the sun darkens and the stars fall—captures the overwhelming sense of chaos that often accompanies profound change. For the early Christian community facing persecution, these words served as both a warning and a reminder of God's ultimate sovereignty over history.

The declaration in verse 26, that the Son of Man will come in clouds with great power and glory, shifts the focus from despair to hope. This imagery is rich with the promise of redemption and the establishment of God's kingdom. Reflecting on this, we are invited to understand our struggles not as the end but as part of a divine narrative leading to restoration. The anticipation of Christ's return encourages believers to remain steadfast, cultivating a faith that looks forward to a future where justice and peace prevail. Verses 28-31 introduce the metaphor of the fig tree, urging us to discern the signs of the times. This call to vigilance is especially relevant today, as we navigate a world marked by uncertainty and turmoil. It challenges us to engage actively with our surroundings, embodying the kingdom values of compassion and justice.

Finally, verse 32 emphasizes the mystery of God's timing, reminding us that only the Father knows the hour of Christ's return. This acknowledgment of our limitations invites us to trust in God's plan, fostering patience amid our longing for resolution. Mark 13:24-32 encourages a reflective faith that balances hope with vigilance, urging us to live purposefully as we await the fulfillment of God's promises.

God Bless,
 Fr. Matt

Food Pantry Corner

The food pantry has successfully completed the capital improvements at Keifer Hall that were scheduled for 2024. The electric panel and outlets in the common room have been upgraded and a mini-split heating and cooling unit has been installed. Our sincere thanks to Jeremy Battles at Battles Electric and Mark Miller at Miller Heating and Cooling for completing these projects with us in a timely and professional manner. A gracious thank you to East Hill Foundation, located in North Tonawanda, New York. The mission of East Hill Foundation is to support innovative and charitable projects designed to enhance the quality of life of the residents in Western New York. We were fortunate to receive an invitation to apply for a grant which enabled us to complete the above improvements at Keifer Hall. In addition, the pantry was able to secure a donation of stone to improve the grade of the parking lot. Thank you Steve Polovick at Northern Sideworks for donating your time and equipment to re-grade the corner section of the pantry parking area. How fortunate to work with so many wonderful people who strive to support our communities and the families our pantry serves. We are so thankful to all of you for working together with us. In the month of October, we serviced 34 families, distributing greater than 2205 meals. These are numbers the pantry as not seen before; your ongoing support helps us successfully meet the needs of these families. We Thank You!
