Dear Parishioners,

The Feast of Christ the King, celebrated on the last Sunday of the liturgical year. This feast emphasizes the universal sovereignty of Christ, affirming His role as the King of the universe and the ultimate authority over all creation. As we reflect on this celebration, we are reminded of the nature of Christ's kingship, which stands in stark contrast to earthly power and authority. Christ's reign is characterized by love, humility, and service. Unlike worldly rulers who often seek power for personal gain, Christ demonstrated His kingship through self-sacrifice and compassion. His life was a testament to the values of the Kingdom of God, where the last shall be first, and the meek shall inherit the earth. This redefinition of power challenges us to rethink our understanding of leadership and authority in our own lives.

The Feast of Christ the King also invites us to consider our response to His kingship. As members of His kingdom, we are called to live out the principles He taught. This includes serving others, promoting justice, and fostering peace in our communities. It challenges us to examine our priorities and commitments, urging us to align them with the values of the Gospel. Moreover, this feast serves as a reminder of the hope we have in Christ. In a world often filled with turmoil and uncertainty, Christ's kingship offers us a sense of security and purpose. We are encouraged to place our trust in Him, knowing that He reigns over all circumstances and that His love and mercy are everlasting.

Today's Feast of Christ the King is a powerful reflection on the nature of true leadership and the call to live as faithful disciples. It invites us to acknowledge Christ's authority in our lives and to actively participate in building His kingdom on earth through acts of love and service. As we celebrate this feast, may we be inspired to embody the values of Christ's reign in our daily lives.

God Bless,
 Fr. Matt
