Dear Parishioners,

The first Sunday of Advent marks the beginning of a season filled with anticipation, reflection, and hope.

This time invites us to prepare our hearts and minds for the celebration of Christmas, the arrival of Christ. Advent is often seen as a time of waiting, but it is not a passive waiting; rather, it is an active preparation for the joy and peace that the holiday brings.

As we light the first candle on the Advent wreath, we are reminded of the significance of hope. This candle represents the hope that God's light will shine in the darkness, illuminating our paths and guiding us through the challenges we face. In a world that often feels chaotic and uncertain, this hope is a powerful reminder of the promises of God and the assurance that we are never alone.

During this first week, it is essential to reflect on what it means to be prepared. This preparation can take many forms: spiritual practices such as prayer and meditation, acts of kindness, or simply taking time to slow down amidst the busyness of life. By engaging in these practices, we cultivate a sense of readiness to welcome Christ into our lives and to share His love with others.

Moreover, Advent calls us to look inward, assessing our lives and recognizing areas where we may need transformation. It is a time to let go of distractions and focus on what truly matters—relationships, faith, and the community around us. As we embark on this Advent journey, let us embrace the spirit of hope and renewal, allowing it to inspire us to live more intentionally and compassionately in the days ahead. In doing so, we prepare our hearts for the joy of Christmas and the promise of new beginnings.

God Bless,
Fr. Matt

Adoration of the Blessed Sacrament
