Catholic Leadership Institute

Christ Our Hope Parish is on a journey to know, love, and serve Christ in our Parish community. Together we must embrace Christ's vision for missionary discipleship so that our Parish can thrive and be a place for others to grow together in faith.

The very first step in this process involves assessing our greatest strengths and opportunities. This is where the Disciple Maker Index (DMI) comes in! The DMI is an important survey tool that invites you to reflect on your discipleship journey here at Christ Our Hope Parish.

The Disciple Maker Index is designed to:

- ◆ Invite parishioners to reflect on their journey of discipleship.
- ◆ Enable parish leaders to make data driven decisions.
- ◆ Help parishioners grow in their faith.

Dear Parishioners,

This weekend, we encounter a profound teaching moment where Jesus addresses the multitude gathered around Him. This passage is often referred to as the "Sermon on the Plain," highlighting the radical nature of His message regarding the blessed and the woes. Jesus begins by proclaiming blessings on the poor, the hungry, and those who weep, contrasting their current state with the future hope they will experience in God's kingdom. This inversion of societal values is striking; it challenges the prevailing notion that wealth, satisfaction, and happiness are signs of divine favor.

The blessings pronounced by Jesus serve as a reminder of God's preferential option for the marginalized. In a world that often prioritizes the powerful and the prosperous, Jesus elevates the downtrodden, offering them hope and dignity. The poor and hungry are not merely statistics; they are individuals who, in their struggles, are closer to the heart of God. This conveys a powerful message about the nature of God's kingdom, where the last shall be first, and the meek shall inherit the earth.

Conversely, Jesus also pronounces woes upon the rich, the satisfied, and those who laugh now. This stark warning serves as a call to self-examination, challenging us to reflect on our own lives and the societal structures we uphold. It compels us to consider the consequences of our actions and the inherent risks of complacency. Wealth and comfort can lead to spiritual blindness, making it easy to overlook the suffering of others.

Ultimately, this passage invites us to embody the values of the kingdom of God in our daily lives. It challenges us to align our priorities with those of Christ, advocating for justice, mercy, and compassion. As we reflect on these verses, we are called to examine our relationships with others and to actively seek ways to uplift the marginalized and address systemic injustices. In doing so, we participate in the unfolding of God's kingdom here on earth, responding to the call to love and serve as Jesus exemplified.

God Bless,
Fr. Matt
