 will focus on inquiry.

Dear Friends in Christ,

In The Gospel this weekend, we hear of the testimony that John the Baptist makes in regard to Jesus: John the Baptist saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Behold, the Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world. He is the one of whom I said, 'A man is coming after me who ranks ahead of me because he existed before me.' Further on he proclaims: ...but the one who sent me to baptize with water told me, 'On whomever you see the Spirit come down and remain, he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' Now I have seen and testified that he is the Son of God."

The two statements point to the fact that the Baptist was inspired to know who Jesus is, "He is the Son of God", and what Jesus would do to redeem us, "Behold the Lamb of God". Furthermore, these two statements help us to understand the meaning of the liturgy we celebrate every day.

The title Lamb of God recalls the liturgical celebration of the Passover of the Old Testament. We recall how Moses was sent by the Lord to lead the Israelites out from their slavery in Egypt. When Pharaoh refused to allow the Israelites to leave, ten plagues were unleashed upon Egypt in an attempt to convince Pharaoh to let God's people go. It would be the tenth plague that would eventually do the trick. It was called the Passover because the Lord revealed to Moses: For I will pass through [passover] the land of Egypt that night, and I will smite all the first-born in the land of Egypt, both man and beast; ...: I am the LORD. The blood shall be a sign for you, upon the houses where you are; and when I see the blood, [The blood of the sacrificial Lamb] I will pass over you, and no plague shall fall upon you to destroy you, when I smite the land of Egypt. (Exodus 12:12-13)

Once this had all taken place, the Lord would then instruct the Israelites: "This day shall be for you a memorial day... You shall observe this rite as an ordinance for you and for your sons forever. And when you come to the land which the LORD will give you, as he has promised, you shall keep this service. (Exodus 12:24-25) We read in the Gospel of Luke: When the hour came, he [Jesus] took his place at table with the apostles. He said to them, "I have eagerly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer, for, I tell you, I shall not eat it again until there is fulfillment in the kingdom of God." (Luke 22:14-16)

What we surmise from this is that Jesus had transformed the Passover meal, endowing it now with a whole new meaning and reality. Rather than a first born son being redeemed by the sacrificial blood of the lamb, as had happened in Egypt, Jesus makes Himself the Lamb of sacrifice and becomes for us the Lamb of God who takes away the sins of the world. Jesus is the eternally begotten Son of God who has redeemed us by His sacrifice. Just as the original Passover became the means by which the Chosen People had maintained their identity, it is now the Eucharistic Sacrifice that reminds us of who we are. In Christ, we have become the children of God redeemed by the passion of Christ.

Grace be with you all,
 Rev. Thomas I. Ward
