The Easter Triduum

Thursday, April 9th - Sunday April 12th.

Dear friends in Christ,

In the first reading this weekend the Lord speaks to His Chosen People and to each one of us, inviting each of us to use our freedom wisely: Before man are life and death, good and evil, whichever he chooses shall be given him.

In the Gospel as well, Jesus reminds us that the law that had been given to Israel, the Ten Commandments in particular, must still be followed:

...whoever breaks one of the least of these commandments and teaches others to do so will be called least in the kingdom of heaven. But whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven.

We are thus reminded that true freedom is experienced when we adhere to the law of the Lord. The Catechism of the Catholic Church explains:

The exercise of freedom does not imply a right to say or do everything. ... By deviating from the moral law man violates his own freedom, becomes imprisoned within himself, disrupts neighborly fellowship, and rebels against divine truth. ...as Christian experience attests especially in prayer, the more docile we are to the promptings of grace, the more we grow in inner freedom and confidence during trials, such as those we face in the pressures and constraints of the outer world. By the working of grace the Holy Spirit educates us in spiritual freedom in order to make us free collaborators in his work in the Church and in the world. (CCC, #1740, 1742)

Grace be with you

Rev. Thomas J. Ward
