REFLECTION

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

In The Gospel this weekend we hear: Are not two sparrows sold for a small coin? Yet not one of them falls to the ground without your Father's knowledge. Even all the hairs of your head are counted. So do not be afraid; you are worth more than many sparrows.

We are here reminded of the Lord's omnipresence (His being present everywhere) and His Omniscience (His knowing of all things). At the Easter Vigil in 2007, Pope Benedict XVI offered the following reflection:

From ancient times the liturgy of Easter day has begun with the words: Resurrexi et adhuc tecum sum I arose, and am still with you; you have set your hand upon me. The liturgy sees these as the first words spoken by the Son to the Father after his Resurrection, after his return from the night of death into the world of the living. The hand of the Father upheld him even on that night, and thus he could rise again.

These words are taken from Psalm 138… That Psalm is a song of wonder at God's omnipotence and omnipresence, a hymn of trust in the God who never allows us to fall from his hands. And his hands are good hands.

The Psalmist imagines himself journeying to the farthest reaches of the cosmos — and what happens to him? "If I ascend to heaven, you are there! If I make my bed in Sheol, you are there! If I take the wings of the morning and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea, even there your hand shall lead me, and your right hand shall hold me. If I say, 'Let only darkness cover me'..., even the darkness is not dark to you...; for darkness is as light with you" (Ps 138 8-12). On Easter day the Church tells us that Jesus Christ made that journey to the ends of the universe for our sake. In the Letter to the Ephesians we read that he descended to the depths of the earth, and that the one who descended is also the one who has risen far above the heavens, that he might fill all things (cf. 4:9ff.). …

And so the Church can rightly consider these words of thanksgiving and trust as words spoken by the Risen Lord to his Father: "Yes, I have journeyed to the uttermost depths of the earth, to the abyss of death, and brought them light; now I have risen and I am upheld for ever by your hands".

But these words of the Risen Christ to the Father have also become words which the Lord speaks to us: "I arose and now I am still with you," he says to each of us. My hand upholds you. Wherever you may fall, you will always fall into my hands. I am present even at the door of death. …even there I am waiting for you, and for you I will change darkness into light.

Grace be with you all, Rev. Thomas I. Ward

SAFE ENVIRONMENT RECERTIFICATION REMINDER

If you are a volunteer or employee in the parish and your renewal for safe environment certification has expired or needs to be renewed, we will be scheduling a date for training in August and it will be held in Gill Hall. If you have been certified in the past (over 5 yrs ago) you will need to take the recertification class this August. Please contact Kelly Nagy 315-348-8373 to register or for any questions.

We will also be scheduling an Initial Safe Environment Training for those who have not been certified and are volunteers, Lectors and Ushers.

CATHOLIC WOMEN'S CLUB NEWS

The CWC is an integral part of our parish's Prayer Line . When prayers are requested, there are two phone lines that pass along the information and pray: one is in Boonville, the other is in Forestport. You may request prayers by leaving a message at the COH parish office 315-942-4618. The office is staffed from 9-12Noon Monday-Thursday.

It is not necessary to be a CWC member to offer prayers through this ministry. If you wish to help with this important parish support group, please notify the office.

VOLUNTEER HELP NEEDED AT ST. MARY OF THE SNOWS

WANTED: A person or persons who would be interested in making their own wild flower/garden flower or bought flower arrangements for the altar, or placing plants on the altar this summer at St. Mary of the Snows. This would help the 2 individuals who are currently doing this. You could volunteer to bring in the flowers for any number of Sundays. After Sunday mass, you will be able to take your flowers/plants back home.
If interested or if you have any questions, please call Loretta Kaye @ 315-369-6088. Thank you.
