Dear friends in Christ,

I want to wish you, once more, a Merry Christmas and again a Happy New Year as we come to the close of the Christmas season with the celebration of the Epiphany. We gather to look to Jesus as the revelation of God's great love for all of humanity and for each one of us. In the first reading this weekend this is gloriously proclaimed:

Rise up in splendor, Jerusalem! Your light has come, the glory of the Lord shines upon you. See, darkness covers the earth, and thick clouds cover the peoples; but upon you the LORD shines, and over you appears his glory.

St. John says, at the beginning of his Gospel that Jesus is the eternal Word and that through him was life, and this life was the light of the human race; the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not overcome it...(John 1:4-5)

The Catechism proclaims that "Christ is the light of humanity; and it is, accordingly, the heart-felt desire [of the Church]... that, by proclaiming his Gospel to every creature, it may bring to all men that light of Christ..." which enlightens every man.(CCC, #748)

The Magi signify both the nations as well as every human heart that seeks to find joy, peace, hope and fulfillment. Jesus chooses to be found small, innocent and defenseless, resting in the arms of His Mother, so that we may always approach Him without fear and with total trust.

Grace be with you,

Rev. Thomas J. Ward
